

WORKING WITH AN ARTS HOTEL IN LONDON TO FIND LOCAL KITCHEN STAFF

GREEN
ROOMS

Green Rooms at a glance...

Green Rooms in Wood Green is a multi-purpose hotel, events and arts space

Originally a 1930's electricity showroom, the venue has been beautifully restored by new owners

With a new restaurant coming soon, the current kitchen was handling all catering needs

Began working with Morgan Jones in 2018

Staff Requirements

Green Rooms Hotel is a unique arts hotel located in North East London. The management team were looking to hire kitchen staff who were local, qualified and passionate about the concept of the hotel.

Morgan Jones set out initially to find a temporary breakfast chef and, after that had been successful, we began working across various catering positions at the venue.

The most important factor for the management was a lack of time to focus on recruitment - the venue has become incredibly popular for events (including a recent Vogue shoot) and Morgan Jones were able to save time on all their new catering hires.

As a local business we look to employ local people, but it's also important that new hires understand the ethos of Green Rooms.

Rahman Arshad, General
Manager, Green Rooms