

WORKING QUICKLY TO PROVIDE STAFF FOR AN EVENTS SERVICE BUSINESS

Vibration Group at a glance...

The Vibration Group is a diverse group of companies who provide an end-to-end events service

From fashion shows to festivals, Vibration Group works across a wide variety of events in different industries

The central office is based in London with affiliated companies across the UK

Staff Requirements

The Vibration Group manage events across the UK and had an urgent requirement for staff to manage their operations across two warehouse sites in London.

The roles were vital to the day-to-day operations of the business, ensuring inventory was managed and that there was communication across the whole group. Morgan Jones quickly set about searching our database and reaching out to new candidates who had the right skills and qualifications.

The new team members were placed on a permanent basis and they continue to help the Vibration Group manage the growth of their business.

'It was really important for us to fill the roles quickly as we were taking on additional events and our inventory needs constant monitoring'
